Club communications include:

Old Brits Club Newsletter
Club Website: www.SBCC.ca and
SBCC e-mail users list.

Member News: the newsletter and website are always looking for material; part of the way you can contribute to the club is by submitting ANY information that can be used to inform our members. Both new and long time members are encouraged to provide input. It doesn't have to be a finely crafted piece of writing, give us the rough copy and we'll make it look good. Suggestions for material include:

Member profiles - every member is requested to tell us something about themselves: interests, family, occupation, how you became interested in British cars and brief story about your British car (please include photos). Submit to: Editor - Old Brits.

Clinics - where, when, car(s), problems, symptoms, resolution, who was involved, photos. Submit to: Editor - Old Brits and to SBCC Web master.

Events and Tours - organizers of club events are strongly encouraged to provide photos and brief notes on their event to the Old Brits Editor and to the SBCC Web master.

Projects - if you are doing a restoration, rebuild, refurbishment, repaint ... to your pride and joy (or somebody else's pride and joy), take some photos and do a brief (or extensive) write up on what you are doing and Submit to: Editor - Old Brits and/or to SBCC Web master.
